Harewood with early lead!

Lincoln Uni can't make dent in Harewood line up...

Yi Sien Lin, Jesse Wilson and Vladimir Ivanov were all unbeaten as they defeated Lincoln Uni eight matches to nil, in doing so opened up an early lead in the round, albeit only by match countback at this stage.

Jim Chen and Anny Li were able to cause Harewood some trouble in the first doubles, as the took that match to five games, however it was the Harewood duo of Wilson and Lin that prevailed in the fifth and final game.

Aside from the first doubles, the only other game (not match) that Harewood dropped was in Zak McKellar's 1-3 loss to Ivanov, but again it was Harewood's Ivanov who won in the end, illustrating the dominance the Harewood side achieved.

Ivanov sits second equal on the singles wins tally, with 11 wins from 14 matches.

John Cordue sits on top of that table with an unbeaten 14 wins from 14 matches.

Linwood 1 too strong for club mates...

Last time the two Linwood teams faced off, the club's second team achieved a more than respectable 3-5 loss. This included good wins by both Griffin Buchanan and Anthony Wilson. However, on the round 2 re-match it was a different story. Josh Kim avenged his first round loss to Buchanan and along with his team mates Sang-Yong Park and David Walle, the Linwood 1 players were all undefeated. This included the doubles matches also, thus the final result was a resounding 8-0 victory to Linwood 1.

Kirwee result same as first round...

In the first round, Kirwee 1 were able to win 2 matches against their club's number one team. This time round the result was the same. Despite the reasonable comfortable score line, there were some competitive matches to entertain on lookers. None more so than Jaafar Moussa's impressive victory over Simon Wallace. Both players are in the top four in terms of singles matches won, and the match between them was intensely fought. Moussa's form in recent weeks has continued, and he looks a far more confident player at present. This was evident in the result, which was a 3 game to 1 victory for Moussa.

Moussa now sits second equal with Vladimir Ivanov on the singles tally for the competition, with 11 wins from 14 singles matches.

This week!

Top teams clash...

The two teams that tied for first place in round 1 go head to head tonight, as Harewood face Kirwee 1. Harewood are without Hongyi Li, however they still have a strong team with Yi Sien Lin, Jesse Wilson and Vladimir Ivanov representing. Kirwee 1 are also without Simon Wallace, but have Han Jong Eub, John Cordue and for the first time, Alfred Dele-Pena.

Kirwee 2 play Linwood 2, with Jay Zhu making a return for the Kirwee side.

Lincoln Uni are up against Linwood 1, with both sides featuring usual suspects!
