TOP OF THE TABLE CLASH!

Kirwee 1 dominant despite missing key player...

Whilst Kirwee 1 were without the unbeaten Simon Wallace this week, the contest still contained three previously unbeaten players in Hongyi Li, Han Jong Eub and John Cordue. Two of those players were to sustain that record, as Han and Cordue led Kirwee 1 to an impressive 5-3 victory over Harewood. In doing so both recorded good wins over Li.

Harewood players Vladimir Ivanov and Yi Sien Lin were able to win one singles each, and the teams shared the doubles, however the spearheads for Kirwee were a dominating force, and secured the overall win in style.

The win puts Kirwee 1 in a heavily favoured position to secure top points in the first round of Super Club 2022, with 2 weeks remaining before Round 2 commences.

Harewood still look like the other team to recon with, however they will surely be less than happy with this result versus the Kirwee 1 line up.

Points Standing: Round 1 - Week 3

Linwood 1 too strong for the Uni...

Linwood 1 were without Sang Yong Park, but their chargers David Walle, Daniel Jefferies and Josh Kim were none-the-less too strong for Lincoln Uni. All three Linwood players were unbeaten, and Kim featured in both doubles wins also. David Walle continued to lead from the front as he maintained his unbeaten singles record across all competitions so far in the round.

Lincoln Uni players Zak McKellar and Anny Li managed to take the second doubles to five games, but in the end Kim and Jefferies were once again victorious in what was the closest match of the night

Kirwee 2 move into second place...

Last week, Linwood 2 showed that they have the ability to worry some of the more accomplished players in the competition. This week they had the chance to apply pressure against the very experienced Kirwee 2 side. However, it was the Kirwee 2 players that showed how tough they really are, and they rarely looked in trouble throughout the night.

There were times early in the match between Griffin Buchanan and Simon Fenwick where it seemed we might be in for another close battle, however the guile and versatility of Fenwick proved too much for Buchanan as the match went on, and Fenwick won in four games.

Lyndon White continued his great run in the competition and he once again collected two singles wins. This included a very respectable three sets to one victory over Griffin Buchanan.

The closest match of the night was the first doubles, in which White and Jafaar Moussa closed out Anthony Wilson and Sonu Gupta 11-8 in the final game.

Moussa, Fenwick and White were all unbeaten as Kirwee 2 completed the second 8-0 victory of the night.

The win puts Kirwee 2 on the same competition points as Harewood and Linwood 1, however Kirwee 2 narrowly hold second place, Harewood third and Linwood 1 fourth, with only a single match win separating each of them.

This Week!

All three contests this week should provide entertaining match ups.

Table 1 hosts Kirwee 2 vs Harewood, with the outcome quite significant in determining second place points for the first round of Super Club 2022. Hongyi Li will be looking to re-affirm his teams standing whilst Jafaar Moussa and Simon Fenwick will have the opportunity to test themselves against some of the toughest players in the competition.

Table 2 sees Lincoln Uni take on Linwood 2, with both teams eager to attain their first contest win. There should be some interesting individual match ups also.

Linwood 1 are up against competition leaders Kirwee 1 on table 3. Will the Kirwee 1 players be able to retain their unbeaten singles records, or will the likes of David Walle, also unbeaten, be able to put a dent in the leading teams record? We expect the Linwood 1 team will be up for the challenge.
