Super Club's first draw!

Linwood 2 and Lincoln Uni share the points...

It's taken 27 contests over 9 nights for Super Club to register it's first 4-4 draw. It also represents the first competition points for Linwood 2.

Zakary McKellar lead the way for Lincoln Uni by securing his two singles wins, including beaten Griffin Buchanan in straight games. Jim Chen and Aaron Tian also supported with one singles win each.

However, both doubles went the way of Linwood 2, once again illustrating how important the double is in this format. Buchanan featured in both doubles wins, firstly teaming up with Daniel Montgomery and the later with Mihik Advilkar, both who were making their first appearances in Super Club. Buchanan also captured a singles win for his team.

Montgomery lost both of his singles in straight games, but remarkably five out of the six games he lost were 'advantage', many of them well over 10 points each!

Perhaps the story of the night, however, was junior Mihik Advilkar, who not only become the youngest Super Club player to date, but also achieved a great win over Aaron Tian in four games. Well done Mihik!

Linwood 1 show some fight ...

Han Jong Eub and John Cordue continued their winning ways, each of them winning their two single and teaming up to win the first doubles against Linwood 1. However Linwood 1 were not going down without a fight, and Daniel Jefferies and Sang-Yong Park both attained one singles win each, while Jefferies combined with David Walle to win a doubles. Walle, one of the top players in the competition, had his lowest return thus far, going down to both Han and Cordue.

The final result a respectable 5-3 to Kirwee 1.

Kirwee 2, without Simon Fenwick due to injury, took the early lead 2-1, including Jaafar Moussa defeating Vladimir Ivanov. However that was it for the Kirwee side, as Harewood took out the remaining five matches to win 6-2.

Harewood stalwarts, Jesse Wilson and Hongyi Li both won their two singles, whilst Vladimir Ivanov supported with one singles win.

This week!

Harewood take on Linwood 2 on table 1, with both teams fielding some of their usual players. Kirwee 1 are without Han Jong Eub, but Simon Wallace and John Cordue are supported by Kris Alisch once again, and look a strong challenge for Lincoln Uni. In what was likely to be the closest contest of the week, Linwood 1 face Kirwee 2, however without injured Simon Fenwick, the Kirwee 2 side might find the going tough against the young Linwood chargers.
