Round 3 starts!

Park and Lin with strong performances...

A good performance by Sang-Yong Park was not enough for his team Linwood 1 to make a big enough dent in Harewood side. Park won his two singles, with good wins over Jesse Wilson and Vladimir Ivanov, however it was Harewood who prevailed 6-2 in the overall contest. It was Yi Sien Lin, despite spending the majority of the night lobbing from the barriers, who lead the Harewood side with two singles wins.

Business as usual for Kirwee 1...

Simon Wallace and Han Jong Eub each won two singles for Kirwee 1 as they defeated Linwood 2 6-2. Simon was joined by his dad, Stuart Wallace, who also contributed with a singles win over Mihik Advilkar. For Linwood, Griffin Buchanan picked up another singles win, and alongside Anthony Wilson, was successful in beating the Wallace family combination in the second doubles.

It is notable that two of Kirwee 1's players, Han Jong Eub and John Cordue, are still on 100% for singles this season.

All the 2's for Kirwee 2...

It was 2 singles wins each for Kirwee 2's Jaafar Moussa, Simon Fenwick and Lyndon White, and their side also took out the 2 doubles to boot. The Lincoln Uni side of Zakary McKellar, Paul Want and Aaron Tian were about to push hard in some of the matches, but it was a clinical performance by the Kirwee 2 side to win 8-0.

Jaafar Moussa now moves into second position in the singles statistics, showing what an impressive season he is having. Simon Fenwick has also performed consistently as well as Lyndon White who can be very proud of his performances.

The win means that the Kirwee 2 side take the early lead in round 3.

This week!

The two Kirwee teams are both at full strength as they face each other tonight. Lincoln Uni have a new representative in Sun Tao. He joins Zak and Jim as they go up against the might of Harewood. Lastly, the two Linwood's teams also play each other. Linwood 2 also have a first time representative in Derrick Wong.
